

DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES, DEPARTMENT OF CAREER EXECUTIVE ASSIGNMENT EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT

California State Government supports equal opportunity to all regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, disability, religious or political affiliation, age, sexual orientation, medical condition or pregnancy. It is an objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free work place. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the State, the rules governing Civil Service, and the special trust placed in public servants.

| | | | |
|----------------------------|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| DEPARTMENT: | DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES, DEPARTMENT OF | RELEASE DATE: | Monday, March 1, 2010 |
| POSITION TITLE: | Chief, Office of Protective Services | FINAL FILING DATE: | Friday, March 12, 2010 or until filled |
| CEA LEVEL: | CEA 2 | EXTENDED FINAL FILING DATE: | |
| SALARY RANGE: | $ 7,815.00 - $ 8,616.00 / Month | BULLETIN ID: | 03012010_1 |

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Under direction of the Deputy Director Developmental Centers Division, in the Department of Developmental Services (Department), the Chief, as a peace officer, has full responsibility for the statewide public safety function of the Office of Protective Services (OPS). The OPS delivers the full range of public safety services including basic policing, investigations, and fire safety services to the Department's five Developmental Centers (DCs) and one State-operated Community Facilities (SOCFs). The Chief gives general direction to four Commanders who direct the field services and a Headquarters' staff who conducts Internal Affairs and background Investigations and provide administrative support services and assistance to the centers.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Either I

Must be a State civil service employee with permanent civil service status or who previously had permanent status in the State civil service.

Or II

Must be a current or former employee of the Legislature, with two or more consecutive years as defined in Government code § 18990.

Or III

Must be a current or former non-elected exempt employee of the Executive Branch with two or more consecutive years (excluding those positions for which salaries are set by statute) as defined in Government Code § 18992.

Or IV

Must be a person retired from the United States military, honorably discharged from active military duty with a service-connected disability, or honorably discharged from active duty as defined in Government Code § 18991.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

Ability to be appointed as a peace officer as required by Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) and/or eligible for obtaining current peace officer status by successful completion of a POST-certified Requalifications Course.

Candidates must be able to successfully complete a background investigation pursuant to requirements contained in Government Code 1029–1032, prior to appointment.

Possession of broad administrative or program management experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation and evaluation of law enforcement program policies.

Ability to demonstrate sufficient computer skills to perform various functions daily. Must be skilled in using word processing programs; email systems and data management resources.

Must be able to travel a minimum of 50% of the time using various types of transportation. Must have a valid California Driver's License.

PEACE OFFICER STANDARDS

Citizenship Requirement: Pursuant to Government Code Section 1031 (a), in order to be a peace officer, a person must either be a U.S. Citizen or be a permanent resident alien who is eligible for and has applied for U. S. Citizenship. Any permanent resident alien who is employed as a peace officer shall be disqualified from holding that position if his/her application for citizenship is denied.

Felony Disqualification: Pursuant to Government Code Section 1029, persons convicted of a felony are disqualified from employment as peace officers except as provided under Welfare and Institutions Code, Division 2, Chapter 3, Article 8, Section 1179(b), or Division 2.5, Chapter 1, Article 4, Section 1772(b). Except as provided for by these statutes, persons convicted of a felony are not eligible to compete for, or be appointed to, positions in these classes.

Firearm Conviction Disqualification: Anyone who is restricted for employment-related purposes from accessing, possessing, carrying, receiving, or having under his/her control a firearm or ammunition under all applicable State or Federal laws is ineligible for appointment to any position in these classifications.

Firearms Requirement: Persons convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence, as defined in the amended Federal Gun Control Act of 1968, are disqualified from appointment to these classes.

Background Investigation: Pursuant to Government Code Section 1031, persons successful in peace officer examinations shall be required to undergo a thorough background investigation prior to appointment.

Medical Requirement: Pursuant to Government Code Section 1031, persons appointed to a peace officer class shall undergo a medical examination to determine that he or she can perform the essential functions of the job safely and effectively.

Psychological Requirement: Pursuant to POST Regulations 1002(a) (7) requires psychological screening of applicants for peace officer classifications.

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

Applicants must demonstrate the ability to perform high administrative and policy – influencing functions effectively. Such overall ability requires possession of most of the following more specific knowledge and abilities:

(1) Knowledge of the organization and functions of California State Government including the organization and practices of the Legislature and the Executive Branch; principles, practices, and trends of public administration, organization, and management; techniques of organizing and motivating groups; program development and evaluation; methods of administrative problem solving; principles and practices of policy formulation and development; and personnel management techniques; the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives; and a manager's role in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program.

(2) Ability to plan, organize, and direct the work of multidisciplinary professional and administrative staff; analyze administrative policies, organization, procedures and practices; integrate the activities of a diverse program to attain common goals; gain the confidence and support of top level administrators and advise them on a wide range of administrative matters; develop cooperative working relationships with representatives of all levels of government, the public, and the Legislature and Executive branches; analyze complex problems and recommend effective courses of action; and prepare and review reports; and effectively contribute to the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity objectives.

These knowledge and abilities are expected to be obtained from the following kinds of experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation and/or evaluation of program policies (experience may have been paid or volunteer; in State service, other government settings, or in a private organization):

CEA Level 1. Supervisory/administrative experience in a line or staff activity, including the execution and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 2 and 3. Broad administrative or program manager experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 4 and 5. Extensive managerial and program administrative experience which has included substantial responsibility for a combination of management functions such as program planning; policy formulation; organization coordination and control; and fiscal and personnel management. Where high technical professional qualifications are of primary importance in performing the duties of a given CEA position, then the above required experience may have been in a staff capacity exercising professional skills to influence and contribute to program, policy, and methods of providing those professional services. Primary examples are medical doctors and attorneys.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATION(S)

Sufficient knowledge of the organization, mission and statutory environment of the Department to allow the Career Executive Assignment appointee to function effectively in a policy-influencing assignment. In appraising experience, weight will be given to the following desirable qualifications, as well as possession of the minimum qualifications described above:

Knowledge of personnel and budget management, organizational structure and theories of management.

Principles and practices of policy formulation and development; personnel management techniques, including employee empowerment.

Techniques for continuous process improvement and maintaining quality customer service; program development and evaluation; methods of administrative problem solving; program development and evaluation; principles and practices of policy formation and development.

Ability to interpret statistical data and compose clear, accurate and concise reports.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

A minimum rating of 70% must be attained to obtain list eligibility. Hiring interviews may be conducted with the most qualified candidates. All candidates will receive written notification of their examination results. The result of this examination will be used only to fill the position of Chief, Office of Protective Services, with the DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES, DEPARTMENT OF. Applications will be retained for twelve months.

The results of this examination will be used only to fill this position.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

APPLICANTS WHO FAIL TO SUBMIT A STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS WILL BE ELIMINATED FROM THE EXAMINATION.

Questions concerning the examination should be directed to Ms. McQuillan at (916) 322-7790.

Interested applicants must submit:

- A completed Standard State Application (Form 678).
- A "Statement of Qualifications". The Statement is a narrative discussion of how the candidate's education, training, experience, and skills meet the minimum and desirable qualifications and qualify them for the position. The Statement of Qualifications serves as a documentation of each candidate's ability to present information clearly and concisely in writing and should be typed and
- Resumes do not take the place of the Statement of Qualifications.

Applications must be submitted by the final filing date to:

DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES, DEPARTMENT OF, Administration/Personnel Services Section
1600 9th Street, MS-Q, Sacramento, CA 95814
Peggie McQuillan | 916-322-7790 | peggie.mcquillan@dds.ca.gov

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

NOTE: The Chief of OPS, falls under the retirement category of Peace Officer/Fire Fighter.

knowledge of: techniques and methods for managing specialized police, investigation and fire services; the operation of the Department, Department policies and procedures and all applicable laws affecting the provision of specialized law enforcement services to the DCs/CFs; the organization and functions of California State government including the organization and practices of the Legislature and the Executive Branch; principles, practices, and trends of public administration, organization, and management; techniques of organizing and motivating teams; criminal and administrative investigative techniques and procedures utilized in a variety of investigation types involving consumers and employees at the DCs/CFs; criminal and civil law and procedures, rules of evidence, Welfare and Institutions Code, Penal Code, Government Code, Health and Safety Code, Vehicle Code and California Code of Regulations; agencies and programs that interface with the Department, such as, California Department of Public Health, Department of Mental Health, Department of Justice, California Highway Patrol, State Fire Marshal, POST and allied law enforcement; the Department's civil rights and equal employment opportunity programs; and a manager's role in civil rights and equal employment opportunity programs.

Ability to: integrate the principles of public safety and law enforcement in the DCs/CFs specialized environment; plan, organize, and direct the work of multidisciplinary and multicultural professional staff of peace officers, firefighters and other related classifications required in a law enforcement function; analyze administrative policies, organization, procedures and practices; understand and be able to institute current practices to ensure compliance with acceptable law enforcement functions; ensure that fire prevention and fire suppression activities are modernized and acceptable with the industry; integrate the activities of a diverse program to attain common goals; gain the confidence and support of top level administrators and advise them on a wide range of administrative matters; develop cooperative working relationships with representatives of all levels of government, the public, and the Legislative and Executive Branches; work effectively with local prosecuting agencies, local law enforcement agencies and state agencies such as the California Department of Public Health, Department of Justice, California Highway Patrol and other allied agencies as needed; analyze complex problems and recommend effective courses of action; demonstrate a high level of skill in all types of communication techniques; prepare and review reports; effectively contribute to the Department's or Agency's equal employment opportunity program; and effectively perform high administrative and policy-influencing functions.

SPECIAL TESTING

If you have a disability and need special testing arrangements, mark the appropriate box in Part 2 of the "Examination Application." You will be contacted to make specific arrangements.

GENERAL INFORMATION

If you meet the requirements stated in this bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on this bulletin will be compared with the performance of others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES, DEPARTMENT OF reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service law and rules and all competitors will be notified.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others.

Class specs: <http://www.dpa.ca.gov/textdocs/specs/s7/s7500.txt>

